

11 Weeks

Reading Through:

Ruth

&

Esther

Ruth & Esther Reading Schedule

Date	Text	Key word / verse
Sept 1	Ruth 1
Sept 2	Ruth 1
Sept 3	Ruth 1
Sept 6	Ruth 1-2
Sept 7	Ruth 2:1-13
Sept 8	Ruth 2:14-23
Sept 9	Ruth 2
Sept 10	Ruth 2
Sept 13	Ruth 1-3
Sept 14	Ruth 3:1-6
Sept 15	Ruth 3:7-18
Sept 16	Ruth 3
Sept 17	Ruth 3
Sept 20	Ruth 1-4
Sept 21	Ruth 4:1-12
Sept 22	Ruth 4:13-22
Sept 23	Ruth 4
Sept 24	Ruth 4

Ruth & Esther Reading Schedule

Date	Text	Key word / verse
Sept 27	Esther 1-2:18
Sept 28	Esther 1
Sept 29	Esther 2:1-18
Sept 30	Esther 1
Oct 1	Esther 2:1-18
Oct 4	Esther 2-4:14
Oct 5	Esther 2
Oct 6	Esther 3
Oct 7	Esther 4:1-14
Oct 8	Esther 2-4:14
Oct 11	Esther 4-5
Oct 12	Esther 4
Oct 13	Esther 4
Oct 14	Esther 5
Oct 15	Esther 5
Oct 18	Esther 6-8
Oct 19	Esther 6
Oct 20	Esther 7
Oct 21	Esther 8
Oct 22	Esther 6-8

Ruth & Esther Reading Schedule

Date	Text	Key word / verse
Oct 25	Esther 9-10
Oct 26	Esther 9
Oct 27	Esther 10
Oct 28	Esther 1-5
Oct 29	Esther 6-10

Study Guide for Esther will be made available at the end of September

Small Group Resources for the book of RUTH

The book of Ruth starts with, "Once upon a time—it was back in the days when judges led Israel— there was a famine in the land. A man from Bethlehem in Judah left home to live in the country of Moab..." (the Message)

Ruth has the feel of a simple bedtime story you read to your kids as you tuck them in for the night. As the story unfolds, you discover the message of Ruth is powerful. God has a plan, God's plan is good, and God's plan not only impacts you but generations to come. Join us as we journey through the life of Ruth. Let the story warm your heart and challenge your faith.

September 5-11 [Chapter 1]

Small Group Questions

1. Read Ruth, chapter 1. Describe Naomi's condition after being in Moab for 10 years?
2. Can the choices we make influence how our life will turn out? What choices did Naomi and her husband make? How did their decisions influence their situation? Think about some of the decisions you have made. How have they impacted you?
3. Sometimes the circumstances we face make us feel like things are stacked up against us. Sometimes we are tempted to think that even God is against us. Can you relate? If you are comfortable sharing, describe a situation from your life when you felt like that.
4. Do you believe that God has a plan for your life? Do you believe it is a good plan? Really? Can you give examples of why you believe this?
5. Ephesians 2:10 says, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." The last line of this verse provides an overarching theme for the book of Ruth; God is always at work, and he has a plan that is good. In the first chapter, Ruth's life does not seem to be going well. What would you say to her in the middle of her situation?
6. In the middle of her situation Ruth responds to Naomi in verse 16, "But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God." What stands out to you about Ruth's statement?

Additional Notes for Chapter One

- verse 2 – Moab: located east of the Jordan River and the Dead Sea.
- verse 2 – Naomi: means “pleasant, lovely, delightful”.
- verse 2 – Ephrathites: Ephrath was an earlier name for Bethlehem.
- verse 8 – LORD: personal name of God meaning “I am who I am” (Exodus 3:14); The God who is actively present with his people.

- verse 8 – kindness: The Hebrew term “hesed” means loyal love based upon faithfulness and commitment.
- verse 11 – sons who could become your husbands: The Old Testament Law stated that if a man died, his brother had to marry the widow to protect her and carry on the family name. Naomi’s comment here (“sons who could grow up to be your husbands”) refers to levirate marriage, the obligation of a dead man’s brother to care for the widow (Deuteronomy 25:5-10). This law kept the widow from poverty and provided a way for the family name of the dead husband to continue.
- verse 20 – Mara: bitter, sad.
- verse 20 – Almighty: “The Mountain One” suggesting unlimited power.
- verse 22 – Bethlehem: “house of bread”; located about five miles southwest of Jerusalem. The town was surrounded by lush fields and olive groves. Its harvests were abundant. The population of the town would not have exceeded a couple of hundred in most periods and was likely considerably less at this time.

September 12-18 [Chapter 2]

Small Group Questions

1. Read Ruth, chapter 2. As the story develops, do you see God actively at work, or do you see the events unfold by chance or mere coincidence? Why?
2. Who was Boaz's mother? Google it. How did Boaz's family get connected with the Israelites? (You can read the story in Joshua chapters 2-6.) How do you think Boaz's background influenced the way he treated Ruth? Can you see God at work in this?
3. Where have you seen God working behind the scenes as you look back at your life?
4. How is Naomi mentoring Ruth? In Matthew 28, Jesus tells his disciples to "...go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." What is your role when it comes to mentoring others?
5. Can you identify someone in your life whom you could influence or mentor? As a group discuss how you can each be a better mentor to the one or two individuals God has given you the opportunity to influence.

Additional Notes for Chapter Two

- Gather leftover grain (verse 2). When the wheat and barley were ready to be harvested, harvesters were hired to cut down the stalks and tie them into bundles. Israelite law demanded that the corners of the fields not be harvested. In addition, any grain that was dropped was to be left for poor people, who picked it up (this was called gleaning) and used it for food (Leviticus 19:9; 23:22; Deuteronomy 24:19). This law served as a type of welfare program in Israel.
- I have told the men not to touch you (verse 9). The ideal position for a gleaner was right behind the harvesters, where one would be the first to pick up whatever stalks fell from the sheaves. However, a gleaner who followed too closely was vulnerable to rough treatment by the workmen.
- Half a bushel (verse 7). Between thirty and fifty pounds of grain; about a month's worth of the grain ration usually allotted to male workers.
- Family-Redeemer (verse 20). Responsible for protecting the interests of needy members of the extended family.
- NOTE: The author continually reminds us that Ruth was from Moab. Israel regarded Moab as an inferior people, descended from an incestuous union (Genesis 19:30-38). Moab had been hostile towards Israel since the days of Moses. Moab also oppressed some of the Israelite tribes for eighteen years toward the beginning of the judges' era (Judges 3:12-30).

September 19-25 [Chapter 3]

Small Group Questions

1. Read Ruth, chapter 3. This chapter sounds a bit like the TV show The Bachelor. Naomi is the matchmaker and she encourages Ruth to make the first move. In the culture of her day this was very bold and very risky. Put yourself in her shoes. How do you think she was processing this moment? As you reflect on this chapter, what parts of the Ruth's story jump out at you?
2. Reread verses 3-4. To lie down at someone's feet would be to take the position of a servant, waiting for the command of the master (something Ruth references later). Ruth waits for Boaz to tell her what to do. She could demand his protection under the law, but instead comes in a posture of humility and servanthood. What do you learn about the character of Boaz and Ruth from this interaction?
3. The only direct reference to God (the Lord) in the book of Ruth is in verse 10, when Boaz blesses Ruth. Do you see the actions that happen in this chapter as an example of God at work or of people taking matters into their own hands? Why?
4. Ruth took a risk. She took a step of faith to do what she felt like God is leading her to do. Where do you feel God is calling you to take a risk and step out in faith?

Additional Notes for Chapter Three

- Winnowing...on the threshing floor (verse 2). Farmers separate the useful seeds of grain from the useless stalks by laying the grain on the floor and having animals walk on it. Once the seeds are loosened, they toss it in the air and the wind separates it the rest of the way.
- Guardian-redeemer/Kinsman-redeemer (verse 9). The Kinsman-redeemer was a man legally obligated to take care of the childless widow of a member of his family. He is the nearest relation to the dead man and is required to marry the widow in order to continue the dead man's name and family line. (You can read more about it in Deuteronomy 25:5-10)
- Six measures of barley (verse 15). It is unclear how much this is, but shows that Boaz is continuing to provide for Ruth and Naomi.

September 26-October 2 [Chapter 4]

Small Group Questions

1. Read Ruth, chapter 4. Examine the choices that Boaz and the unnamed kinsman make in verses 2 through 10. What do you learn about each man's priorities?
2. Think back to chapter one and reflect on some of the words Naomi used to describe her life. How did she describe God's work in her life in chapter one? Read Ruth 4:14-17. How do you think she would describe her life in chapter four?
3. Compare her life in chapter four to her description in chapter one. Take a moment to examine how God works. How did he work in Naomi's life? How does he work in your life?
4. As you read the book of Ruth it unfolds like a beautiful love story and God's provision for two ladies in need. Read verses 17-22. These verses hint at a larger and more grand story that is developing. David, the giant killer and future king is mentioned as a descendent of Ruth. How did Ruth's personal story have an effect on the future of the nation of Israel? Have you ever thought about how your life can have an impact on the generations to come? If you believed that, how would it change how you are living today?
5. Throughout this story the word redeemer has been used. All the way through the book of Ruth, God has been hinting at an even LARGER story of the coming of another redeemer. Read Romans 3:23-24. How is Jesus our redeemer? How has Ruth's story helped you understand how Jesus can be our redeemer?
6. If God's grand plan is to be our redeemer, what is his part, what is our part in walking into that redemption?

Additional Notes for Chapter Four

- Town gate (verse 1). This was the centre of activity. No one could enter or leave the town without traveling through the gate. Merchants set up their temporary shops near the gate, which also served as city hall. Here city officials gathered to conduct business.
- Leaders (verse 4). Usually clan leaders or the heads of households served as the governing body of the city. Judicial and legal matters were in their hands.
- Like Rachel and Leah (verse 11). Their sons became the initial fathers of Israel's twelve tribes.
- Perez (verse 12). He was the father of the most famous tribe in Judah, the one to which Boaz belonged.
- Seven sons (verse 15). Since seven was considered a number of completeness, to have seven sons was considered to be the highest level of all family blessings in Israel.